

RECENTLY PRESERVED HISTORIC STRUCTURES

*MADISON CELEBRATES PRESERVATION WEEK 2011
by recognizing efforts to preserve these historic structures*

THANK YOU FOR YOUR SUPPORT OF THESE PRESERVATION EFFORTS

- A. To preserve objects, structures and areas of historic, archaeological, cultural, social, architectural and historic significance;*
- B. To encourage the continued use of historic sites and to facilitate their appropriate reuse;*
- C. To maintain and promote an appropriate and harmonious setting for existing historic structures and districts within the Borough;*
- D. To recognize and preserve historic districts in the Borough as an essential element of municipal character and identify which contributes to the reputation of madison as a place of beauty;*
- E. To encourage appropriate alterations of historic sites and improvements within the historic districts and to discourage new construction which is not in keeping with the character of historic districts and sites;*
- F. To protect and enhance property values;*
- G. To promote the use of historic districts for education, pleasure and welfare of the citizens of the Borough and its visitors and to promote civic pride in the Borough's historic resources;*
- H. To foster private reinvestment in historic districts and sites and balance the purposes of historic preservation with current needs.*

from the MADISON HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION
